

Letter of Reference

To Whom It May Concern

Florence, June 2014

Dear Madams and Sirs,

I am writing this reference at the request of Maria Camilla Vanegas, who is applying for a position at Your Company.

I have known Camilla for about one year in my capacity as a full-time Professor and Project Leader of Fashion Buying and Product Management Master at Polimoda and supervised her study and professional growth along this period, choosing her as head of the class.

Camilla can warrant a superior quality of work rate and some very interesting abilities and skills performing with constancy and determination her duties. She proved curiosity in exploration of new topics related to marketing, design, research and fashion. She is very reliable, strict and serious student, motivated and surely earned good and rare profile for those disciplines such as marketing, fashion, retail, design and branding. Based on Camilla's quality of work, ability in coordinating group of people and reporting to her superiors, I'd rate her performance as superior.

In conclusion, I would highly recommend Maria Camilla Vanegas for job connected with responsibilities. If her performance in my classes and under my supervision is any indication of how she will succeed, Camilla will be a positive addition to your assets and will assure to most companies a very innovative and professional profile.

I can only add a personal note on Camilla: constant and hardworking person.

If You should need any additional information you can feel free to contact me by email at my personal address lscaini@studioscaini.com or luca.scaini@polimoda.com.
